

HORIZONTAL MOUNT DRY PIT SUBMERSIBLE

The A series wastewater pumps are available in a horizontally mounted version for dry pit applications. This arrangement is very useful in pits where vertical clearance is minimal. In addition, the end suction flange arrangement eliminates the need for an elbow at the pump inlet. The elimination of the elbow is beneficial in applications where the net positive suction head available is marginal.